

What You Should Know Before Hiring a Remodeling Contractor: A Consumer Guide

Your home or commercial property is one of your most valuable investments. Choosing the right contractor is essential to ensuring that your renovation project is smooth, successful, and stress-free.

At ICal Construction, we want to help you understand the remodeling process, so you know what it takes to achieve a successful outcome.

What Makes a Project Successful? Here's Our Standard:

1. Your expectations are clearly defined, met, or exceeded.
2. You are highly satisfied with the final outcome.
3. The craftsmanship is top-quality and built to last.
4. You feel at ease with the team working in your space.
5. Mutual respect is maintained between you and our team throughout the project.
6. You feel the value you received matches the price you paid.
7. Your newly remodeled space enhances both your property's value and your lifestyle.
